RESOLUTION

Impeaching Donald John Trump, President of the United States, for high crimes and misdemeanors.

1 Resolved, That Donald John Trump, President of the 2 United States, is impeached for high crimes and mis-
3 demeanors and that the following articles of impeachment
4 be exhibited to the United States Senate:

5 Articles of impeachment exhibited by the House of 6 Representatives of the United States of America in the 7 name of itself and of the people of the United States of 8 America, against Donald John Trump, President of the 9 United States of America, in maintenance and support of 10 its impeachment against him for high crimes and mis-
11 demeanors.

ARTICLE I

13 In his conduct of the office of President of the United 14 States, Donald John Trump—and in violation of his con-
15 stitutional oath faithfully to execute the office of President
16 of the United States and, to the best of his ability, pre-17 serve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United 18 States, and in violation of his constitutional duty to take 19 care that the laws be faithfully executed—Donald John 20 Trump has abused the powers of the Presidency by at-
21 tempting to unlawfully overturn the results of the Novem-
22 ber 2020 Presidential election in the State of Georgia.

1 On January 2, 2021, President Trump violated his 2 constitutional duty to take care that the laws of the 3 United States be faithfully executed when, on a recorded
4 call, he repeatedly asked Georgia Secretary of State Brad
5 Raffensperger to overturn the finalized and verified results
6 of the November 2020 Presidential election in the State
7 of Georgia. President Trump misused the power of his of-8 fice by threatening an elected official with unspecified con-
9 sequences if he failed to pursue the President's false
10 claims and attempting to coerce an elected official to com-
11 mit fraud. His actions and statements on this call amount-12 ed to interference with the impartial election process in 13 direct contravention of both Federal law and the laws of 14 the State of Georgia.

15 In all of this, Donald John Trump has acted in a
16 manner contrary to his trust as President and subversive
17 of constitutional government, to the great prejudice of the 18 cause of law and justice and to the manifest injury of the 19 people of the United States.

20 Wherefore, Donald John Trump, by such conduct,
21 warrants impeachment and trial, removal from office, and
22 disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor,
23 trust, or profit under the United States.

24 ARTICLE II

25 In his conduct of the office of President of the United 26 States—and in violation of his constitutional oath faith-

1 fully to execute the office of President of the United States
2 and, to the best of his ability, preserve, protect, and defend 3 the Constitution of the United States, and in violation of 4 his constitutional duty to take care that the laws be faithfully
5 fully executed—Donald John Trump has abused the powers
6 of the Presidency to incite violence and orchestrate an 7 attempted coup against our country.

8 On January 6, 2021, President Trump encouraged
9 individuals to travel to Washington, DC, with the sole purpose
10 of inciting violence and obstructing Congress in engaging 11 in its constitutionally mandated legislative business of 12 certifying the electoral college results of the 2020 election.
13 He incited a crowd of supporters in Washington, DC, to 14 violently attack the United States Capitol while both chambers
15 of Congress were in session, saying “You’ll never take 16 back our country with weakness. You have to show strength 17 and you have to be strong”. After those supporters had 18 violently breached the Capitol, he put out a further statement 19 repeating his false claims of election fraud and telling the 20 members of the mob, “We love you, you’re very special”.

22 In all of this, Donald John Trump has acted in a
23 manner contrary to his trust as President and subversive
24 of constitutional government, to the great prejudice of the

1 cause of law and justice and to the manifest injury of the
2 people of the United States.

3 Wherefore, Donald John Trump, by such conduct,
4 warrants impeachment and trial, removal from office, and
5 disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor,
6 trust, or profit under the United States.
