RESOLUTION

Commending the men and women of U.S. Customs and Border Protection for their service and sacrifice amidst a growing crisis at the southern border.

Whereas there is a growing humanitarian and national security crisis at the southern border;

Whereas the United States is experiencing the highest number of illegal crossings in 15 years, 171,000 of which occurred in March 2021 alone;

Whereas border facilities are at 1,700-percent capacity;

Whereas two Yemeni terrorists on the Federal no-fly list were recently apprehended while trying to breach the southern border; and

Whereas the Biden Administration and Vice President Harris have refused to acknowledge this crisis and take the necessary steps to secure the border, putting enormous strain on U.S. Customs and Border Protection agents: Now, therefore, be it

1       Resolved, That the men and women of the U.S. Customs and Border Protection—

3           (1) are deserving of recognition for their tireless
4       work to defend American sovereignty, uphold law
5       and order, and mitigate the humanitarian and national security threat unfolding at the southern border;
7       der;

8           (2) deserve gratitude for their service, integrity,
9       and steadfast commitment to fulfill the duties in 10      which they are entrusted; and

11          (3) should be commended for their sacrifice
12      while being away from their families and putting 13      their lives at risk to protect our communities.
