IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 20, 2021

Ms. VELÁZQUEZ (for herself, Mr. ESPAILLAT, Mr. NADLER, Mr. TORRES of New York, Ms. OCASIO-CORTEZ, Mr. SOTO, Mr. SIRES, and Mr. GRIJALVA) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Marking the four-year anniversary of the devastation of Puerto Rico and the United States Virgin Islands by Hurricane Maria.

Whereas, on September 20, 2017, Hurricane Maria made landfall in Puerto Rico;

Whereas Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands were still recovering from a direct hit by Hurricane Irma when Hurricane Maria made landfall just 14 days later;

Whereas, on September 20, 2021, the people of Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands living on the islands as well as those living on the mainland will acknowledge the four-year anniversary of Hurricane Maria;

Whereas Hurricane Maria is the second deadliest storm in recorded United States history after the Great Galveston Hurricane of 1900;

Whereas the people of Puerto Rico living on both the mainland United States and the island have shown an incredible and resilient spirit in rebuilding after their record losses;

Whereas Puerto Rico faced one of the longest blackouts in United States history, where millions of residents were left without power and basic services for nearly a year, triggering physical and mental health, migration, housing, and infrastructure crises;

Whereas four years since Hurricane Maria made landfall in Puerto Rico, the electrical grid on the island remains unreliable leaving millions without a secure source of power as they suffer intermittent brownouts and blackouts;

Whereas thousands of people in Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands still have blue tarps over their roofs due to the impacts of Hurricanes Maria and Irma;

Whereas hundreds of thousands of Puerto Ricans were uprooted and some have relocated to the mainland United States as a result of Hurricane Maria;

Whereas hundreds of Puerto Ricans displaced by Hurricane Maria continue to need housing assistance from the territorial and Federal Government due to unaddressed damage to their homes on the island;

Whereas Puerto Rico's economic health continues to waiver as the preexisting debt crisis was exacerbated by the impact of Hurricane Maria;

Whereas Hurricane Maria is the third most costly United States tropical cyclone recorded, with damages estimated at $98,100,000,000;

Whereas the Federal Government has allocated almost $72,000,000,000 in disaster relief funding to help the people of Puerto Rico and the United States Virgin Islands rebuild from disasters since Hurricane Maria struck;

Whereas the official death toll from Hurricane Maria now stands at 2,975 victims in Puerto Rico, although some academic estimates place the toll at 4,645;

Whereas many of the underlying vulnerabilities contributing to the massive death toll on the Island, such as an underfunded healthcare system and a shortage of medical physicians and specialists are still present;

Whereas the over 8,000 residents of the island municipality of Vieques, Puerto Rico lost their primary hospital and to this date, do not have an adequate and comprehensive healthcare facility;

Whereas the Federal Emergency and Management Agency (FEMA) Office of the Inspector General found in a September 2020 report FEMA mismanaged the distribution of commodities in response to Hurricanes Irma and Maria in Puerto Rico;

Whereas it is known that FEMA lost visibility of approximately 38 percent of its commodity shipments to Puerto Rico, worth an estimated $257,000,000;

Whereas the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Office of the Inspector General found in an April 2021 report the Trump administration created bureaucratic hurdles that delayed approximately $20,000,000,000 in hurricane disaster recovery and mitigation funds to Puerto Rico;

Whereas Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands continue to battle with climate change, which has intensified tropical cyclones, rising temperatures, coastal erosion, droughts, flash floods, among other climate events;

Whereas Puerto Rico continues to address and respond to other disasters, including the 2020 earthquakes and the COVID–19 pandemic; and

Whereas millions of Puerto Ricans and Virgin Islanders still grapple with the physical, emotional, and economic damages caused by Hurricanes Maria and Irma: Now, therefore, be it
