2 provide greater benefits to children.

3 (c) REQUIREMENTS BEFORE PUBLICATION OF INI-
4 TIAL ANALYSIS.—Before the publication of an initial regu-
5 latory children’s analysis by an agency:

6 (1) The head of the agency shall convene a re-
7 view panel for the proposed applicable rule con-
8 sisting of full-time Federal employees of the office 9 within the agency responsible for carrying out the 10 proposed applicable rule, 3 children’s representa-11 tives, a board certified pediatrician, a member of the 12 National Academy of Sciences with expertise in chil-
13 dren’s health, a licensed early childhood educator,
14 and 1 career employee from the Office of Informa-
15 tion and Regulatory Affairs.

16 (2) The review panel convened pursuant to 17 paragraph (1) shall review any material related to 18 the applicable rule that the agency has prepared in 19 connection with the requirements of this Act, includ-

6 (4) Where appropriate, the agency shall publish 7 any modification of the proposed applicable rule, the 9 on whether an initial regulatory children's analysis is 10 required.

11 (d) WAIVER OF REQUIREMENTS.—In consultation
12 with the individuals identified in subsection (c)(1), the Ad-
13 ministrator may waive the requirements of paragraph (2), 14 (3), or (4) of subsection (c) by including in the rulemaking 15 record a written finding with reasons therefor that those 16 requirements would not advance the effective participation 17 of children's representatives in the rulemaking process.
18 For purposes of this subsection, the factors to be consid-
19 ered in making such a finding are as follows:

20 (1) In developing a proposed applicable rule,
21 the extent to which the agency consulted with indi-
22 viduals representing and advocating for affected chil-
23 dren with respect to the potential impacts of the ap-
24 plicable rule and took such concerns into consider-25 ation.

1           (2) Special circumstances requiring prompt
2           issuance of the applicable rule.

3   SEC. 3. FINAL REGULATORY CHILDREN'S ANALYSIS.

5   for in subsections (a) and (b) of section 4, simultaneously
6   with the promulgation of a final applicable rule under sec-
7   tion 553 of title 5, United States Code, or any other appli-
8   cable statute, the head of the agency shall publish a final 9   regulatory children's analysis, or a summary of the anal-10   ysis, in the Federal Register. In a case in which only the 11   summary is published, the head of the agency shall make 12   the final regulatory children's analysis available on a pub-
13   lic website of the agency and include a link to that website
14   in the summary.

16   ulatory children's analysis required under this section
17   shall contain the following:

19       by the public comments in response to the initial 20       regulatory children's analysis including the impacts
21       on children and the regulatory analysis, a statement 22       of the assessment by the agency of such issues, and 23       a statement of any changes made to the proposed 24       applicable rule as a result of such comments.

1           (2) An estimate of the number of children who 2           may be directly or indirectly negatively impacted by 3           the final applicable rule and the basis of such esti-
4           mate or a substantiated explanation of why such es-
5           timate is unavailable.

6           (3) A description of the demographic groups of 7           children impacted by the final applicable rule.

8           (4) A description of the steps the agency has 9           taken to minimize the negative impact on children,
10          and to maximize the benefits to children, including 11          a statement of the factual, policy, and legal reasons
12          for selecting any alternative adopted in the final ap-13          plicable rule and why any other alternative that had 14          less negative impact on children's health was not 15          adopted.

16          (5) An appendix containing the following:

17                (A) Any draft of the proposed applicable
18                rule submitted by the agency to the Office of 19                Management and Budget for any interagency 20                review process prior to proposal of any such 21                rule and each document accompanying any such 22                draft.

23                (B) Each written comment to any draft

8 SEC. 4. EXCEPTION, DELAY, AND PREPARATION OF ANAL-
9 YSES.

10 (a) EXCEPTION.—The requirements of sections 2 and 11 3 do not apply if the head of an agency—

12 (1) certifies that an applicable rule will not 13 have a negative impact on a substantial number of 14 children; and

15 (2) publishes such certification in the Federal 16 Register at the time of publication of general notice 17 of proposed rulemaking for the applicable rule along 18 with a statement providing details for the factual
19 basis for such certification.

20 (b) DELAYS.—

21 (1) EMERGENCY.—The head of an agency may 22 delay the completion of the requirements of section
23 2 by publishing in the Federal Register, not later
24 than the date of publication of the final applicable
25 rule, a written finding that the final applicable rule

1 is being promulgated in response to an emergency
2 that makes timely compliance impracticable.

3 (2) IMPRACTICABILITY.—The head of an agen-
4 cy may delay the completion of the requirements of 5 section 3 for a period of not more than 180 days
6 after the date of publication in the Federal Register
7 of a final applicable rule by publishing in the Fed-
8 eral Register with the final applicable rule, a written 9 finding that the final applicable rule is being pro-10 mulgated in response to an emergency that makes 11 timely compliance with the provisions of section 3 12 impracticable. If the agency has not prepared and 13 published the final regulatory analysis as described 14 in section 3 within 180 days after the date of publi-
15 cation of the final applicable rule, such applicable
16 rule shall lapse and have no effect.

17 (c) PREPARATION.—

18 (1) IN GENERAL.—In complying with sections 2
19 and 3, an agency shall include in any analysis—

20 (A) a quantifiable or numerical description
21 of the effects of a proposed and final applicable
22 rule or alternatives to the proposed and final 23 applicable rule; and

24 (B) a qualitative analysis and description
25 of the effects of a proposed and final applicable

1 rule or alternatives to the proposed and final
2 applicable rule.

3 (2) SPECIAL ATTENTION TO UNIQUE
4 VULNERABILITIES.—An agency shall consider the 5 unique vulnerabilities of children, including the 6 unique behaviors, exposure routes, developing bodies,
7 and dependence on adults for their care, in pre-8 paring the analysis and description described in 9 paragraph (1).

10 SEC. 5. PROCEDURES FOR GATHERING COMMENTS.

11 For any applicable rule, the head of the agency pro-12 mulgating the applicable rule shall assure that children's 13 representatives have been given an opportunity to partici-
14 pate in the rulemaking for the applicable rule through rea-
15 sonable use of techniques, including the following:

16 (1) The inclusion in an advanced notice of pro-17 posed rulemaking, if issued, of a statement that the 18 proposed applicable rule may have a negative effect
19 on a substantial number of children.

20 (2) The issuance of the notice through an easily
21 accessible publicly available press release or official 22 statement.

23 (3) The conduct of an open conference or a

4 ANALYSES.

5 (a) IN GENERAL.—An agency may perform the anal-6 yses required by sections 2 and 3 in conjunction with any 7 other required analysis, such as subchapter I of chapter 8 35 of title 44, United States Code (commonly referred to 9 as the Paperwork Reduction Act), or Executive Order 10 12866 (relating to regulatory planning and review).

11 (b) CONSOLIDATION OF RULES.—In order to avoid 12 duplicative action, an agency may consider a series of 15 SEC. 7. REPORTS.

16 (a) OIRA REPORT ON COMPLIANCE.—The Adminis-

17 a rule was not an applicable rule was arbitrary, capricious, 18 an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with
