RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives that Congress must completely and unequivocally condemn violence, lawlessness, and rioting from all individuals and groups, regardless of ideology or political affiliation.

Whereas, in 2020 and 2021 in cities throughout the United States, over 9,000 demonstrations, many of them violent and destructive, some amounting to domestic terrorism, took place, injuring hundreds and claiming more than 30 American lives, inflicting over $1,000,000,000 in damages and stolen goods, destroying Federal buildings and property, and displaying a willful disregard for the rule of law: Now, therefore, be it

1       Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

1           (1) recognizes that Federal law enforcement,
2       Federal property, and citizens' rights must be pro-
3       tected;

4           (2) urges political leaders on both sides of the 5       aisle to immediately condemn all violent protests and
6       criminal behavior associated with rioting;

7           (3) commands justice, order, and domestic tran-
8       quility across the country be restored immediately;
9       and

10          (4) supports the Attorney General in pros-
11       ecuting all individuals actively engaged in rioting to 12       the fullest extent of the law.
