

117TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 291

Expressing support for the designation of the week of April 5 through April 9, 2021, as National Assistant Principals Week.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 5, 2021

Mr. LEVIN of Michigan (for himself, Mr. TRONE, Mr. BOWMAN, Ms. STRICKLAND, Ms. MCCOLLUM, Ms. JACOBS of California, Mr. VELA, Mr. CLEAVER, and Mr. GRIJALVA) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor

RESOLUTION

Expressing support for the designation of the week of April 5 through April 9, 2021, as National Assistant Principals Week.

Whereas the National Association of Secondary School Principals (referred to in this preamble as “NASSP”), the National Association of Elementary School Principals, and the American Federation of School Administrators have designated the week of April 5 through April 9, 2021, as “National Assistant Principals Week”;

Whereas an assistant principal, as a member of the school administration, interacts with many sectors of the school community, including support staff, instructional staff, students, and parents;

Whereas assistant principals are responsible for establishing a positive learning environment and building strong relationships between school and community;

Whereas assistant principals play a pivotal role in the instructional leadership of their schools by supervising student instruction, mentoring teachers, recognizing the achievements of staff, encouraging collaboration among staff, ensuring the implementation of best practices, monitoring student achievement and progress, facilitating and modeling data-driven decision making to inform instruction, and guiding the direction of targeted intervention and school improvement;

Whereas the day-to-day logistical operations of schools require assistant principals to monitor and address facility needs, attendance, transportation issues, and scheduling challenges, as well as to supervise extra- and co-curricular events;

Whereas assistant principals are entrusted with maintaining an inviting, safe, and orderly school environment that supports the growth and achievement of each and every student by nurturing positive peer relationships, recognizing student achievement, mediating conflicts, analyzing behavior patterns, providing interventions, and, when necessary, taking disciplinary actions;

Whereas, since its establishment in 2004, the NASSP National Assistant Principal of the Year Program has recognized outstanding middle and high school assistant principals who demonstrate success in leadership, curriculum, and personalization; and

Whereas the week of April 5 through April 9, 2021, is an appropriate week to designate as National Assistant Principals Week: Now, therefore, be it
