

117TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 194

To require the Inspector General, Department of Justice, to submit a report to the Congress on the number of firearm transaction denials issued by the National Instant Criminal Background Check System that are referred to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives for investigation, the number of prosecutions resulting from such investigations, and the number of firearms recovered by the Bureau in cases in which such a denial was issued after the firearm was transferred.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JANUARY 5, 2021

Mr. BURGESS introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To require the Inspector General, Department of Justice, to submit a report to the Congress on the number of firearm transaction denials issued by the National Instant Criminal Background Check System that are referred to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives for investigation, the number of prosecutions resulting from such investigations, and the number of firearms recovered by the Bureau in cases in which such a denial was issued after the firearm was transferred.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. REPORT ON FIREARM TRANSFERS DENIED AS
2 A RESULT OF A NICS CHECK.

3 Within 90 days after the date of the enactment of 4 this Act, the Inspector General, Department of Justice,
5 shall prepare and submit to the Congress a written re-
6 port—

7 (1) on the number of firearm transactions with
8 respect to which the national instant criminal back-
9 ground check system established under the Brady
10 Handgun Violence Prevention Act has determined
11 that receipt of a firearm by the prospective firearm
12 transferee would violate Federal or State law, and
13 which have been referred to the Bureau of Alcohol,
14 Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives for investigation;

15 (2) on the number of persons prosecuted by a
16 United States attorney for an alleged violation of 17 Federal law in connection with a transaction re-
18 ferred to in paragraph (1); and

19 (3) assessing the efforts of the Bureau to seize
20 firearms received by persons—

21 (A) with respect to whom the system re-
22 ferred to in paragraph (1) of this section was 23 contacted pursuant to section 922(t) of title 18,
24 United States Code, in relation to a firearm
25 transaction;

1 (B) to whom a firearm was transferred
2 after the 3-day period described in section
3 922(t)(1)(B)(ii) of such title that applied with 4 respect to the transaction; and

5 (C) with respect to whom the system re-
6 ferred to in paragraph (1) of this section subse-
7 quently made the determination described in 8 such paragraph.
