

117TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 3774

To require the Secretary of Commerce to conduct a study on the gig economy and the impact the gig economy has on the United States overall economy, including the impact that State laws have had on the gig economy.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 8, 2021

Mr. JOYCE of Pennsylvania introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Energy and Commerce

A BILL

To require the Secretary of Commerce to conduct a study on the gig economy and the impact the gig economy has on the United States overall economy, including the impact that State laws have had on the gig economy.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Advancing Gig Econ-
5 omy Act”.

6 SEC. 2. GIG ECONOMY STUDY.

7 (a) IN GENERAL.—

1 (1) STUDY REQUIRED.—Not later than 2 years
2 after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Sec-
3 retary of Commerce shall conduct a study on the im-
4 pact of the gig economy on United States businesses
5 conducting interstate commerce.

6 (2) REQUIREMENTS FOR STUDY.—In con-
7 ducting such study, the Secretary shall—

8 (A) conduct a survey of the gig economy
9 through outreach to participating entities to—

10 (i) establish a list of industry sectors
11 that participate in the gig economy;

12 (ii) review and briefly explain the im-
13 pact the gig economy has on the United
14 States economy, including any benefits or 15 detriments; and

16 (iii) review the impact the gig econ-
17 omy has on innovation, startups, and small
18 businesses;

19 (B) conduct a survey of Federal activity on 20 the gig economy to—

21 (i) develop a comprehensive list of
22 Federal agencies asserting jurisdiction over
23 the entities and sectors participating in the 24 gig economy;

1 (ii) identify all interagency activities
2 related to the gig economy;

3 (iii) develop a brief description of the 4 jurisdiction and expertise of the Federal
5 agencies as it relates to the gig economy;
6 and

7 (iv) identify all regulations, guidelines,
8 or any other policy implemented by such
9 Federal agencies with respect to the gig
10 economy; and

11 (C) develop and conduct a survey of State
12 laws enacted on the gig economy to—

13 (i) determine the impact such laws
14 have had on the gig economy, including in 15 the transportation and mobility industry
16 sector, the media and journalism industry
17 sector, and any other industry sector im-
18 pacted by such laws in each State; and

19 (ii) determine the impact such State
20 laws have on the United States economy.

21 (b) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—The Secretary of Com-
22 merce shall submit to the Committee on Energy and Com-
23 merce of the House of Representatives and the Committee
24 on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate
25 a report that contains—

1 (1) the results of the study conducted under
2 subsection (a); and

3 (2) any recommendations to—

4 (A) address duplicative Federal rules, reg-
5 ulations, or any Federal activity acting as a
6 barrier to the growth of the gig economy;

7 (B) develop and implement a comprehen-
8 sive plan to promote the growth of the gig econ-
9 omy;

10 (C) develop policies that States can adopt
11 to encourage the growth of the gig economy in 12 each State; and

13 (D) propose any necessary legislation to 14 accomplish such recommendations.
